SWISS and Breitling are to develop their collaboration. To mark the arrival in the SWISS fleet of the Boeing 777-300ER, and as a core element of the new partnership, Breitling has worked with SWISS to create an exclusive limited-edition version of its iconic Navitimer watch. Breitling became SWISS's "Official On-Board Timekeeper" this year. As such, the company will have a strong presence on all SWISS flights, including those of its new fleet flagship, the Boeing 777-300ER. SWISS and Breitling share a passion for aviation, precision and top Swiss quality.

To mark the arrival of the new SWISS fleet flagship, Breitling is producing an exclusive version of its iconic Navitimer watch. In the special edition, which will be strictly limited to just 777 examples, the stainless-steel case will be combined with a black dial and a red second hand with a small aircraft at its tip. The exclusive Navitimer SWISS Boeing 777 Limited Edition will only be sold aboard SWISS flights, and will be available from March onwards at a price of CHF 7,077 (7,250,00$).
